YOUTH GROUP REPORT:

Nicole reported that the meeting dates for the Middle School group has changed to the First Tuesday of the month and the High School group meeting dates are the second Tuesday of the month. As suggested by the Commission the Youth Group has started to recognize the youth at each meeting for their good deeds. The members are really enjoying this and are starting to take pride in each other. This upcoming Saturday the groups are going to Zarpentine Farms for the Corn Maize. On October 24th the High School group is going to be taking part in the Make a Difference Day in Hilton. The Youth Groups are going to be helping out for the Haunted Hallway as well as spending time with the Seniors at Hilton East.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

Patty Jo reported that one volunteer invited to our Volunteer Appreciation Night just got his invitation. Patty Jo reported that the Town Board approved the transfer of funds from the A7020.2 account to the A7140.1 account. The enrollments for the programs are on the low end. Patty Jo is hoping enrollment picks up. One program doing great is the Sign Language class with 16 people enrolled. The Babe Ruth tryouts were this weekend and it looks like there will be a 14-15year old team. One of the goals for the upcoming year is to try to get a Before and After School Program going. Patty Jo is going to be looking at what would be needed to make this happen as well as re-looking at party fees and packages once the Concession building is finished. Patty Jo announced that Nicole Sercu is the new Youth Group Coordinator. Welcome Nicole.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT:

Stan Lyons reported that he was going to be resigning from the Commission effective December 31st. Stan will be missed and the Commission wishes him well.

Angel reported that she will be resigning as Commission Chair but will stay as Secretary. The Commission was unable to vote on a new Chair as Diane was unable to attend the meeting so a new Chair will be voted on at the November meeting. Angel also requested that the roles and responsibilities be looked at and better defined so that goals and expectations can be met.

Joe inquired about the status to the fence for the fields and the dugouts. Patty Jo is going to look into the possibility of permanent dugouts.

OLD BUSINESS:

By Laws – Tabled till November meeting

NEW BUSINESS:

Looking at and developing goals for the upcoming year by both the Recreation Department and the Commission.

A motion to adjourn was made by Stan at 8:02PM and seconded by Joe.
